April 2022
V1.9

Introduction

This guidance sets out the details that training centres need to include for each trainer that is nominated to deliver a specific course, as part of the course approval application process.

The centre must provide evidence to show that the trainer holds appropriate: -

1. Training skills
2. Subject matter knowledge
3. Experience relevant to the course

Centres should provide evidence in the form of a certificate(s), a written accompanying statement and/or a trainer template (Annex A).

If you have submitted trainer evidence for a specific course previously and there is no change to the course content and trainer's skills and knowledge, we can use our records to confirm the trainer meets the requirement of the Directive¹. To do this, please tell us the name of the trainer delivering the course and their driving licence number or another form of information e.g. date of birth.

Prior authorisation must be sought before a new trainer is permitted to deliver this course via enquiries@jaupt.org.uk

The following pages provide examples of evidence that DVSA will accept against each of those criteria. These examples have been provided by industry experts but are used for illustrative purposes only.
